CASE Resource Project
Seeking an Independent Contractor for a limited project

About the California Association of Science Educators (CASE)
CASE is a non-profit 501(c)(3) membership organization founded in 1964 and has more than 1,200 members. CASE is the largest, statewide membership association dedicated to science educators.

CASE Vision and Mission statement
- CASE will be the leader in working for every educator to build scientific literacy and agency for themselves and for all students.
- CASE leads the promotion of high-quality, equitable science education through advocacy, collaboration, and communication. CASE recognizes that science has a profound influence on our lives, our local environments, and our world. CASE fosters a community focused on enhancing scientific and environmental literacy and agency for all.

CASE is seeking an Independent Contractor for a limited project
Work Completion Date: February 28, 2022
Stipend Amount: $75/hour (up to 30 hours, maximum $2,250)

Help CASE organize its resources!

Seeking a highly independent Science educator with Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS) experience across multiple grade levels.

Tasks will include, but are not limited to:
- Organize and identify resources in the form of articles in CASE’s electronic newsletter, California Classroom Science, professional learning videos (conference/webinar sessions) in the members only Learning Management System as well as CASE’s website and links to other outside organizations.
- Review each resource, making decisions on the value of the resource and who it is geared towards and create searchable terms (i.e. resource type, theme, topic, utilizing the lens of the NGSS.)
• Identify clusters of high-quality resources that could be used to create badges and micro-credentials;
• Participate in periodic phone calls and/or video conference meetings, communicate with CASE staff via email;
• Product, program, and/or document creation which are related to an agreed-upon activity or naturally arise from a performed or in-progress activity.

Questions, please contact CASE President Peter A’Hearn at casciencepete@gmail.com.

Send interest letter and qualifications to CASE Executive Director Michele Holcomb at michele@cascience.org.

Note that independent contractors will be required to fill out a W-9 and will receive a 1099 at the end of the year.
